OFFENCE VS. DEFENCE

IAIN CLIFFORD STRATEGIC LITIGATION OPTIONS AGAINST THE FCA

4 January 2026

Summary of Background and Claims

1. Engineered "Entrapment by Design"

Iain Clifford believes the FCA has conducted a multi-year "targeted regulatory vendetta" against him, which he characterizes as "Entrapment by Design".

- Lack of Evidence: He asserts that the FCA launched investigations and secured Order 34/2023 without producing credible evidence of any regulated financial activity.
- Impossible Compliance: Clifford argues the order was engineered to impose "impossible standard of compliance," seeking to prosecute him for technical breaches rather than substantive crimes.
- Retaliation: He believes this campaign is a retaliatory response to his work as a whistleblower exposing systemic fraud and regulatory cover-ups, specifically regarding the HBOS fraud.

2. The "Invented" Prosecutor (Alistair Mackenzie)

A central pillar of Clifford's defence is the claim that the purported lead prosecutor, "Alistair Mackenzie," is a legal fiction or placeholder identity.

- Verification Gap: Forensic audits and searches of official registers (FCA Financial Services Register, Law Society) allegedly show no record of a person by this name authorized to perform enforcement or prosecutorial roles.

- Failure to Rebut: Clifford served multiple notices demanding proof of Mackenzie's identity and lawful delegation under FSMA 2000 s.401, but the FCA has reportedly failed to produce any such evidence.

3. Alleged Collusion and Suppression

Clifford alleges that the FCA has acted in collusion with Southwark Crown Court and other agencies to suppress his voice and ensure his incarceration.

- Judicial Misconduct: He claims Judge Anthony Baumgartner displayed "institutional bias" by ignoring over 500 sworn witness statements from MATRIXFREEDOM members and refusing to verify the prosecutor's authority.
- Denial of Due Process: He asserts that the court "railroaded" the matter, denied him lawful representation (by removing his Attorney-in-Fact from court), and utilized "fictitious service" to secure a conviction.

4. Attempt to Destroy the Republic of Old Souls (ROS) and Clifford Protocol

The ultimate motive, according to Clifford, is "political containment" to destroy the Republic of Old Souls and the Clifford Protocol.

- Threat to the "Matrix": The ROS and Clifford Protocol teach a "Peaceful exit from The Matrix" by revealing that modern banking is a credit-based illusion where banks monetize a borrower's signature rather than lending reserves.
- Recoupment of Abandoned Credit: The protocol provides a method for the "fiduciary recoupment of abandoned credit," allowing individuals to reclaim funds from the Treasury.
- Belief-Based Persecution: Clifford believes his doctrines threaten the Crown's financial-jurisdictional structure, leading the FCA to engage in "belief-based persecution" to suppress a ministry that shows people how to exit the debt-tax system.

ECCLESIA LAW

1. CONTINUANCE: UK COURT OF APPEAL (CRIMINAL DIVISION)

The immediate priority remains the quashing of Order 34/2023 and the July 2025 sentence via the appellate structure.

- Objective: To secure a finding of jurisdictional nullity (void ab initio) based on the Anisminic Principle.
- Procedural Posture: Following the Registrar's letter dated 30 December 2025—which erroneously deemed the appeal "ineffective"—a Formal Protest and Re-Submission has been lodged.
- Core Strategy: Move for Adverse Inference Directions under Wisniewski v Central Manchester Health Authority. Since the FCA failed to comply with the Consolidated Notice to Produce by the 3 January 2026 deadline, the Court is invited to infer that no lawful FSMA s.401 instrument of delegation exists for "Alistair Mackenzie".
- Risk: The Court may attempt to "railroad" the case or refuse to hear the merits while you remain in North Cyprus. However, such refusal constitutes a denial of access to a court under Article 6 ECHR.

2. THE UN COMMUNICATION PATHWAY

Given the potential for domestic "railroading," international oversight via the United Nations is a critical "Fast-Track" option.

- UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief: This is a priority filing as it does not require the exhaustion of domestic remedies. You would allege that the FCA is using Order 34/2023 as a tool of "political containment" to suppress the Republic of Old Souls (ROS) belief system and the Clifford Protocol.
- UN Human Rights Committee: An individual communication under the ICCPR (Articles 14 and 18). While usually requiring exhaustion of UK courts, you can bypass this by demonstrating that the UK's domestic remedies are "ineffective" due to procedural sabotage.

3. THE EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS (ECHR)

Your strategy involves using the ECHR not just for final review, but for Urgent Relief.

- Rule 39 Interim Measures: Application for an immediate stay on the Bench Warrant issued 30 July 2025, on the basis that the original order was procured through fraud on the court (the fictitious "Mackenzie").
- Article 13 Defense: Use the Lawful Notice to Cease and Desist (16 July 2025) and subsequent silence as evidence of Final Estoppel and a total lack of effective domestic remedy.

4. UK HIGH COURT: MISFEASANCE IN PUBLIC OFFICE

This moves from defensive appeal to offensive civil litigation against the CEO of the FCA and other senior actors.

- The Cause of Action: Suing for Targeted Malice and Bad Faith. You argue that by ignoring multiple notices served prior to the 2025 sentence, the CEO knowingly sanctioned a prosecution instituted by a non-existent or unauthorized party.
- Breaking Statutory Immunity: The FCA's immunity under FSMA Schedule 1, para 19 is "switched off" upon proof of Bad Faith. The "Verification Gap" regarding Alistair Mackenzie—combined with the failure to rebut your Affidavit of Facts—is your primary evidence of this bad faith.
- Outcome: Seeking substantial damages for "constructive exile," loss of business, and reputational harm caused by "entrapment by design".

5. UNITED STATES FEDERAL COURT: RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION

Utilizing your status as the Head Envoy of a 508(c)(1)(a) Ministry to bring the FCA before a neutral US court.

- FSIA Commercial Activity Exception: You sue the FCA in the US, arguing that their interference with your Abandoned Credit Recoupment webinars (which target US persons/filings) constitutes an act in connection with commercial activity that has a direct effect in the US.
- Ecclesiastical Defense: Asserting that the FCA's actions are a targeted suppression of a protected US religious entity. The use of a "phantom" prosecutor to silence an ecclesiastical envoy would be framed as a "Fraud on the Court".

ECCLESIA LAW

- Strategic Benefit: A US judgment would provide International Fiduciary status, making any UK-issued Interpol notices or warrants harder to enforce in US-aligned jurisdictions.

FINAL CONCLUSION OF ECCLESIA LAW

The FCA's strategy relies on "The Strategy of Silence" and procedural complexity to avoid addressing the Three Pillars of Defense. By launching simultaneous actions in the UN and US Federal Courts, you bypass the domestic "Matrix" and force the FCA to prove the existence and authority of its agents on the international stage.
